Dear Bill,

Thank you for your support of this year's Missionary Communication Workshop. Despite the government shutdown and the uncertainty surrounding air travel, every missionary who registered was able to arrive and return home without a single issue. We're grateful for God's provision in all of it.

One of the greatest joys of the week is watching the missionaries grow in their ability to communicate with clarity and confidence. We record each lesson, sermon, presentation, and Q&A session. Every missionary receives a thumb drive of their work – and I take a copy home as well. After the workshop, I always compare their first presentation to their final one. The difference after just one week of focused training is remarkable.

Here's what some of the missionaries had to say:

- "This workshop was extremely helpful in growing my lesson preparation and presentation skills."
- "This workshop was more than I knew I needed."
- "I can't thank everyone enough for how much I changed because of this workshop. It greatly increased my confidence."
- "I learned to give clear, powerful, and effective presentations."

Your support made it possible for these missionaries to attend the workshop at no cost. Because of you, they left equipped, encouraged, and better prepared for the ministry God has called them to.

Thank you for investing in their lives and ministries.

Gratefully,

Lewis McClendon
